MRS. CALVIN DALE BUCHANAN
the former Miss Mary Wayne Reynolds

Wed In Evening Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Mary Wayne Reynolds to Mr. Calvin Dale Buchanan took place Friday, August 11, 1978, at 7 o'clock in the evening at Providence Baptist Church in Red House.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wayne Reynolds of Red House and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. David Buchanan of Appomattox.

The Rev. Hilton Moore, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Emmett Diggs officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Arched candelabras with burning tapers, baskets of white gladiolas, mums, and pink rose buds, and a background of potted palms decorated the altar. Miss Linda Elder of Richmond, organist, provided a program of nuptial music.

Escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a traditional gown of layers of chiffon over white satin. The empire waisted gown featured a scoop neckline trimmed in Alencon lace. The bodice was enhanced with delicate patterns of lace, seed pearls, and crystal beads. Chiffon ruffles formed the capped sleeves and continued around the arms and flowed into a chapel length train, decorated with Alencon lace appliques. Her headpiece and fingertip length veil was trimmed in matching Alencon lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink rose buds, silk gardenias, lily of the valley, silk apple blossoms and baby's breath.

Miss Elizabeth Reynolds of Red House was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a formal length gown of pale pink sheer nylon over satin. The bodice featured a doubled ruffled scooped neckline. The empire waisted gown had a full skirt flounced with a contrasting rose pink bias ruffle that swept up in the back attached to a cluster of nylon roses at the waist and formed a cascade of ruffles that flowed down the back of the skirt. She carried a white straw basket of pink rose buds, pink carnations, white starburst mums, assorted silk flowers, and baby's breath, accented with a rose pink bow and streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Cheryl Buchanan of Appomattox, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Anne Page Petty of Red House, cousin of the bride; Miss Darlene Johnson of Appomattox; Miss Rita Shorter of Charlotte Court House; and Miss Margaret Milton of Brookneal.

Their dresses were a deep rose pink, trimmed in a pale pink and fashioned identical to the maid of honor. They also carried baskets similar to the honor attendent.

Mr. Buchanan was best man for his son and ushers were Edward D. Buchanan of Chester, brother of the groom; Kent Reynolds of Red House, brother of the bride; Harry Tharpe, Jr. of Keysville; and Rodger Buchanan of Madison Heights, uncles of the groom; and Newton Tolley of Appomattox.

Mrs. L. Page Petty, aunt of the bride, served as mistress of ceremonies.

The mother of the bride wore a formal length gown of aqua polyester with a cascading overlay of organza. She wore a corsage of two gardenias.

The mother of the groom wore a formal length gown of pale green polyester with a fitted bodice and a full skirt of accordian pleats. She wore a white cymbidum orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained with a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Page Petty in Red House.

Assisting with the reception were Miss Phyllis Reynolds, Mrs. G. Foster Reynolds, Mrs. Edward Shorter, Mrs. Diana Martin, Mrs. Tommy Scruggs, and Miss Judy Tharpe.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. R. Lewis Pankey of Appomattox and Mrs. Norman Foster of Lynchburg.

After a wedding trip to the mountains, the couple is now living in Lynchburg.

Birth Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard H. Goin of Concord have announced the birth of a daughter, Amy Nicole, born July 23, 1978 at Virginia Baptist Hospital. They have two other children, Michael who is 4, and Desiree, age 3.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey T. Riddle of Lynchburg and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Willis "Bert" Goin of Appomattox.

RETIRED TEACHERS PLAN LUNCHEON

The meeting of the Appomattox County Retired Teachers will be held at 12 noon on Tuesday, September 12th, at St. Anne's Episcopal Church.

The cost for the luncheon will be $3.00. Please call Mrs. Florence Trent for reservations by September 1st.

Re-seed the bare spots in the lawn as early as possible in September, recommended Virginia Tech Extension home horticulturists. The fall rains will help the young plants get started before cold weather.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM W. BENDER

Wed In Double-Ring Ceremony

Lillian M. Harbridge of Ridgway, Pennsylvania, and William W. Bender, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace W. Bender of Feasterville, Pa., were united in marriage on July 15, 1978.

The Rev. Duane R. Johnson officiated at the double ring ceremony in the Union Church in Shiphottom, New Jersey.

Given in marriage by her family, the bride wore a gown of white chantilly lace over taffeta. The felled bodice with a Queen Anne neckline, bishop sleeves and A-line skirt with chapel train was trimmed with seeded pearls. Her silk illusion veil trimmed with chantilly lace attached to a crown of chantilly lace and was trimmed with seeded pearls. She carried her father's Bible covered with white tea roses.

Cheryl Baur, friend and college roommate, of Allison Park, Pa., was maid of honor. Her gown was of apricot polyester knit. It had a wide cape over felled bodice and an A-line skirt of accordian pleats. She carried a white and apricot tinted carnation with apricot tea roses.

Bridesmaids were Jean Drabot, friend and college roommate, from Hatboro, Pa.; Judy Frantz, Ridgway, Pa.; and Bea Wittman, sister of the bride, from Ridgway, Pa. Their dresses were fashioned like that of the maid of honor and they carried white and apricot tinted carnations.

Karen Babb, neice of the groom, from Califon, N.J., was junior bridesmaid. Her gown was of flowered apricot print and was made by the groom's mother. She carried white and apricot tinted carnations.

Jennifer Moyer of Quakertown, Pa., neice of the groom was flower girl. Her gown was of flowered apricot and was also made by the groom's mother. She carried a smaller bouquet of white and apricot tinted carnations with apricot tea roses.

Andrew Moyer of Quakertown, Pa., nephew of the groom, was ring bearer. Scott Babb of Califon, N.J., nephew of the groom, was junior usher.

William Cassel of Egg Harbor, N.J., friend of the bride and groom, was best man.

Ushers were Fred Mielo of Carneggie, Pa.; John Moss of New York City, N.Y., and Walter Gebbart, III of San Clemente, Calif., cousin of the groom.

Mrs. Sara Holt, organist, provided a program of nuptial music. Mark Bruin, soloist and guitarist, sang "The Wedding Song", "Always and Forever", "One Hand, One Heart", and "The Lord's Prayer".

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at Manahawkin Elks Lodge.

The bride is a graduate of Ridgway High School and received a Bachelor of Science degree in Mathematics Education from Clarion State College, Clarion, Pa., in 1977.

The groom graduated from Neshaminy High School in 1973 and received his Bachelor of Science degree in Communications and Speech Education from Clarion State College, Clarion, Pa., in 1977.

The bride and groom are now at home in Appomattox following a wedding trip down the Eastern Coast.

Mrs. Bender will start her second year of teaching at Appomattox County High School this year and Mr. Bender will continue his employment at WLLL radio in Lynchburg as Production Director and air personality.

Lawns should be fertilized in late September or early October, recommended Virginia Tech Extension home horticulturists.
